

Prosimo Jezusa, naj nam pomaga s svojo milostjo, da bomo živeli in delali odgovorno in bomo tako nekoč vredni večnega plačila v nebesih,

The Master “invested” with his servants based on his knowledge of their abilities. (A talent was a lot of money - it was worth about 20 years’ wages for a laborer.) The two successful servants who went and traded with the money he gave them were also risking it, just like investing today. The only work the lazy servant did was to dig the hole in which he buried his talent. The only thinking he did was to worry about his master’s hardness and fear the consequences if he lost his master’s talent. Perhaps he also resented that his master trusted him with so little, and refused to do the work of investing. That might be why his master called him “wicked.” Of course, this parable is not really about money or possessions. It is about the gifts God gives us personally, from life, to the things we call talents to use them wisely.

REZANCI: – Prihodnjo soboto, 25. novembra, bomo po jutranji maši začeli u delanjem rezancev. Pridite in prinesite potrebne stvari, da bo delo uspešnejše!

KRISTUS KRALJ – Prihodnja nedelja je praznik Kristusa kralja vesoljstva. S tem praznikom se zaključi krog cerkvenega leta. Naslednja nedelja bo prva adventna. Advent nas bo usmeril k božični skrivnosti Jezusovega rojstva, razodetja Božje usmiljene ljubezni.

Z adventom prihaja priljubljeno pranovanje MIKLAVŽEVANJE, ki bo pri nas v nedeljo, 10. decembra; po drugi maši bo kosilo in nato miklavževanje. Vabljeni!
