Nedelja, 24. februar: – Danes nas Jezus pouči v evangeliju, katera in kakšna dejanja so znamenja tiste ljubezni, ki nam jo kaže in nam jo zapoveduje izpolnjevati. Ta ljubezen ni v lepih besedah in prijetnih čustvih. To so dejanja, ki zaustavljajo nasilje, ki prekinjajo sovraštvo, odpirajo vrat sprave in sožitja.

Prvo berilo je primer, kako je David postopal in kako je premaga napetosti in sovraštvo, da se je usmiljenje naselilo v srca ljudi in je nastopil mir, sreča in veselje, prijateljstvo, ki je na novo zaživelo. David se je usmilil Salomona, ki ga je preganjal in ga cečo hotel usmrtiti. Ker se ga je David usmilil, je preprečil zločin, prelivanje krvi in odprl vrata psožitju, spoštovanju in prijateljstvu.

In today's Gospel Jesus addresses Himself "to you who listen to Me," that is, the great crowds of poor and sick people, who had come from all parts. Love your enemies! The words that Jesus addresses to these people are demanding and difficult: to love your enemies, not to curse them, to present the other cheek to anyone who slaps you on one cheek, and do not protest or complain when somebody takes what is yours. ... When the soldier struck Him on the face, He did not offer the other cheek but rather reacted firmly: "If there is some offense in what I said, point it out, but if not why do you strike Me?" The Golden Rule! Two sayings of Jesus help us to understand what He wants to teach. The first saying is the so called Golden Rule: "Treat others as you would like people to treat you!". The second saying is "Be merciful as your Father in Heaven is merciful!" ... Do not judge and you will not be judged; do not condemn and you will not be condemned; forgive and you will be forgiven; give and there will be gifts for you; a full measure, pressed down, shaken together, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap; because the standard you use will be the standard used for you." These are four counsels: two in a negative form, do not judge and do not condemn; and two in positive form: to forgive and to give an abundant measure. ... Help us, God our Savior, for the glory of Your name; wipe away our sins, rescue us for the sake of Your name.
