

Svetniki so naš zgled, spodbuda, priprošnja in pomoč v hoji za Jezusom. Naj nam mogočna priprošnja sv. Jožefa pomaga, da bomo živeli po veri in se tako v duhu vere pripravili na velikonočne praznike. Lepo vabljeni k sveti maši. – Oratorij sv. Jožefa vabi ob prazniku k sveti maši in češčenju sv. Jožefa.

Nedelja, 17. marec: – Trije učenci (Peter, Jakob in Janez) so šli z Jezusom na goro. Tam je Jezus molil in med molitvijo se je spremenil. Učenci so ga videli v sijaju prihodnje slave. Z Jezusom pa sta govorila Mojzes in Elija.

V prvem berilu smo slišali, kako je Bog rekel Abrahamu, naj pogleda v nebo, naj dvigne svoj pogled od zemlje in vsakdanjih stvari in bo videl, razumel, da je še nekaj, kar potrebujemo za vsakdanje življenje – Božjo pomoč.

Ko so učenci prišli z Jezusom na vrh gore, ko so se oddaljili od doline in vsakdanjega življenja in je Jezus molil, so videli, spoznali, nekaj novega.

Videli so Jezusa spremenjenega. Njegov obraz je žarel, oblačila so bila bela. – Molitev, pogovor z Bogom Očetom je povzročil spremembo. Celo dva velika preroka sta bila tam. Učenci so bili prevzeti. Želeli so, da bo to razpoloženje trajalo. Peter je predlagal, da naredijo šotore. Glas iz nebes jih je opomnil: »Ta je moj Sin, moj Izvoljenec, njega poslušajte.« Jezus želi, da gledamo križ, da molimo in s srcem poslušamo, sprejemamo njegov nauk, ki nas bo spreminjal ta postni čas in nam bo v pomoč na pripravo na veliko noč.

The Gospel speaks of the Transfiguration of the Lord Jesus. Before this glorious event, Jesus told his disciples that has to go to Jerusalem for the fulfillment of the Pascal mystery, that is: Passion, Death and Resurrection but they did not understand. Moses and Elijah were there with Jesus. The disciples Peter, John and James were overwhelmed. Peter asked Jesus if they should make dwellings for them. Then the Father declares that Jesus is “My Beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him”. We are to listen to Jesus. We are also sons, in him, of the same Father. ... Let us so act that by words of Jesus! Let us imitate him and follow him. Let us pray every day to attain to the vision of ourselves in the beauty of grace. This way of life will have an impact on me and my life: I be so transformed, o Lord, in your beauty that we may be alike in beauty and faith in our relationship with you and the Father and also with my neighbour.

Jesus then presents himself as our guide on the journey towards the Kingdom. In the account of the Transfiguration Jesus is presented as the new Moses who encounters God “on a high mountain” (Mt 17, 1) in the “bright cloud”, with his face shining. Moses also encounters God in the cloud on Mount Sinai with the bright face. Elijah also encounters the Lord on Mount Horeb, the mountain of God. Just as in the event of Sinai, here also in the Transfiguration there is the revelation of the new law. To listen to the Beloved Son in whom God the Father is pleased is the new law.

► Today, following the second Mass, we will say, meditate »the stations of the Cross«.
