

Nedelja, 26. julij: – Jezus govori o zakladu, o biseru, o mreži. Te stvari nam govorijo o Nebeškem kraljestvu. Vse te dragocesti ljudje uporabljamo, hranimo in ohranjamo. In te stvari so podoba našega odnosa do Boga in do bližnjega, ki je nekaj nadvse dragocenega, pomembnega.

Ob the prilikah pomislimo in se vprašajmo, kaj iščemo v življenju in za kaj se žrtvujemo, porabljam svoj čas in svoje sposobnosti. Je to nekaj minljivega ali je to vsaj katera od lastnosti, ki označujejo Nebeško kraljestvo: dobrota, ljubezen, usmiljenje, pravičnost, mir, dobota, velikodušnost...

Prosimo Jezusa, naj naj pomaga s svojo besedo, naukom in z milžostjo, da bomo razumeli in sprejeli njegovo ljubezen in usmiljenje kot zaklad, ki sig a moramo pridobiti; biser, ki ga želimo imeti; mreža, ki nas varuje pred nevarnostmi in nas vodi na pot pravega krščanskega življenja.

The kingdom of Heaven is like treasure hidden in a field which someone has found. Jesus' parable helps us to better see the presence of the Kingdom of God in the most ordinary things of life. – The Gospels contain many parables of Jesus. Matthew even says, "All these things Jesus said to the crowd in parables and did not speak to them unless in parables". Telling stories, parables, was a common method of teaching used in those days. It was in this way that Jesus made Himself understood by the people. In the parables, He starts from very ordinary things of life and uses them as terms of comparison to help people better understand the less known things of the Kingdom of God. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus starts with three well-known things in the lives of people: the treasure hidden in the field, the merchant who seeks pearls, and the dragnet that fishermen cast into the sea... The Kingdom of God exists, it is hidden in life, waiting for those who will find it. The Kingdom is the result of a seeking and obtaining. There are the two basic dimensions of human life: gratitude of love that welcomes us and comes to meet us, and the faithful observance that brings us to meet the Other, who is our Father in heaven.

“Ko najdemo Jezusa, ga sprejmemo in po veri postanemo del njegovega kraljestva, ta pripadnost presega vse drugo, kar nas lahko osreči. Jezus je večna in popolna sreča.”
