

We can receive indulgences. What are indulgences? Indulgences are the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sin whose guilt has already been forgiven. The faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains the indulgence under prescribed conditions for either himself or the departed. The Indulgences are granted through the ministry of the Church which, as the dispenser of the grace of redemption, distributes the treasury of the merits of Christ and the Saints. – The conditions are: a prayerful visiting of a cemetery, attending Mass and receiving Holy Communion and saying Creed and Our Father in the pope's intention.

Nedelja, 25. oktober: – Kako so se farizeji trudili, ne izpolnjevati zapovedi, ampak Jezusa ujeti v besedi, da bi ga tožili in se ga znebili. Jezus jih je vedno potrpežljivo poslušal in jim jasno odgovoril na zastavljeno vprašanje. Bolj ko so se trudili, da bi Jezusa osramotili, bolj osramočeni so odhajali od Jezusa.

Minulo nedeljo smo slišali, kako je Jezus poučil tudi nas, da je potrebno spoštovati vsakega in tako izpolniti svojo dolžnost do Boga in do sočloveka ter celo oblasti.

Danes nas Jezus spomni na pomen ljubezni, ko odgovori na farizejevo vprašanje. Največja zapoved je ljubezen in to ljubezen do Boga. Da bo ta ljubezen iskrena, pa moramo ljubiti svoje bližnjega kakor samega sebe. Potrebna so dejnja in ne le besede.

The Pharisees want to know where Jesus stands regarding which is the greatest commandment of the law? Jesus replies, "The first is: You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your might! The second resembles it: You must love your neighbor as yourself!" Let us thank the Lord Jesus for the word, his teaching that has enabled us to understand better the will of the Father. As we listen to his word and thank him, we also should ask him to enlighten our mind and give us strength for actions. the strength to practice what his Word is revealing to us. May we, like Mary, his holy mother and our mother in heaven, helps us to practice the Will of God.
