

vašem življenju'. – Prepričana sem, da prosi zame in da imam v njem pri Jezusu zaščitnika«(Mati Terezija).

When news of his death reached his diocese (Gnidovec died in Ljubljana), the priests and people were deeply saddened by his death. They lost their spiritual leader. When the news of his death reached them, priests as well as ordinary people, even Muslims said, »A saint has died.«

Nedelja, 7. februar: – Evangelisti Jezusa pogosto predstavijo, kako ga obdaja ali spremlja množica. Ob tem pa je pogosto vsaj za nekaj časa sam ali samo z učenci in je molil.

Danes nam evangelist pove, da se je vse mesto zbralo pred vrati, pred hišo, v kateri je bil Jezus. Jezusove besede in dejanja so ljudi vabila. Gotovo je vedel, da so mnogi prišli iz radovednosti, da niso verovali.

Verovati v Jezusa pomeni, da njegovo besedo sprejmemo in po njej živimo, Pomeni tudi, da prihajamo k njemu in da se pogovarjamo z Bogom, da molimo ter tako Boga častimo in slavimo.

Jezus je zgodaj vstal in šel molit. Za njim so kasneje prišli učenci in mu povedali, da ga ljudje iščejo. Poslušali so Jezus, ga občudovali, niso pa šli, da bi z njim molili. In Jezus je šel v druge kraje, da bi oznanjal in v ljudeh prebujal vero in zaupanje, smisel za molitev.

The Gospel stories tell us that casting out demons, and preaching, Jesus was in the habit of going off to a quiet place to pray. He felt this need to be in touch with the fact that he was the Father's beloved. He must have found the lack of human affirmation very wearing... When Simon's mother-in-law is cured, she does what Jesus himself does. She serves those in need. She becomes a disciple. Wellbeing of spirit involves a willingness to serve, while spiritual sickness means that I am concerned only about myself. I ask the Lord to make me truly well....Lord Jesus, you became human for us! You brought joy to a family at Cana. You brought healing and hope to Simon Peter's mother in law, and to the paralysed and the blind. You gave bread to the hungry. You gave us your life, your body, your spirit, your mother – everything. Thank you!
