

Nedelja, 18. julij: – Ko so se učenci vrnili z misijonskega dela, jim je Jezus rekel, naj gredo v samoto, da se odpočijejo in v mirupremislijo o svojem delu. Jezus pa je kot dobri pastir sprejel množico in jo učil. Ljudje so potrebovali besedo upanja in poguma za vsakdanje življenje.

Jezus, dobri pastir, pozna vsakogar, pozna naše skrbi, težave, veselje in preizkušnje. Vabi nas k sebi, da nas pouči, da nam s svojo milostjo in besedo daje pomoč, spodbudo in upanje za življenje.

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told Him all they had done and taught. And He said to them, "Come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while." These verses show how Jesus formed His disciples. He was not concerned only with the content of the preaching, but also with rest for the disciples. He invited them to go to a lonely place so as to be able to rest and review what they had done.

The people noticed that Jesus had gone to the other side of the lake, and they followed Him trying to go to Him by foot, to the other shore. So as He stepped ashore He saw a large crowd, and He took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd and He began to teach them at some length.
