

and abilities, and to put them at the service of society and fraternal communion. It becomes an opportunity for the fulfilment not only of oneself, but also of that primary cell of society which is the family. A family without work is particularly vulnerable to difficulties, tensions, estrangement and even break-up. How can we speak of human dignity without working to ensure that everyone is able to earn a decent living?

Nedelja, 1. avgust: – »Z delom sem si ustvaril dom, celo na počitnice grem...« Časi se spreminjajo, dopust mine, stvari izginevajo in minevajo. Jezus nam danes govori: »Ne delaj za jed, ki mine...« Delaj iz ljubezni in v zaupanju ter ne pozabi na Boga. Vse mine in preide, le to, kar je v ljubezni narejeno za bližnjega in Bogu v čast in slavo, ostane. Ljubezen je večna. Ljubezen je celo močnejša od smrti. Jezus je s svojo smrtjo premagal večnost smrti in nam odprl vrata in pot v polnost življenja... Ko se dan življenja zvečeri in približa se nov dan. Po ljubezni boš vstopil v novo jutro, v novo življenje, kjer te pričakuje tvoj Odrešenik, ki je večna Ljubezen.

Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. This is a tough call nowadays, as it was in Jesus' time: not to work for what perishes but for what endures. Our world, so competitive and materialist, is moving in the opposite direction, pushing us to fulfil our passing needs and desires, and forget all about what lasts. I ask for wisdom, for knowing how to choose between what lasts and what passes, and for the courage to do what I know is more important.
