

This is shown by the countless churches dedicated to him worldwide, the numerous religious Institutes, Confraternities and ecclesial groups inspired by his spirituality and bearing his name, and the many traditional expressions of piety in his honour. Innumerable holy men and women were passionately devoted to him. Among them was Teresa of Avila, who chose him as her advocate and intercessor, had frequent recourse to him and received whatever graces she asked of him. Encouraged by her own experience, Teresa persuaded others to cultivate devotion to Joseph.

Nedelja, 5. september: – Ko je Jezus rekel slepemu, ki je težko govoril, »odpri se«, ga je z ozdravitvijo povabil, naj se odpre božji besedi, božjemu sporočilu, božji milosti, da bo imel življenje v sebi. Jezus nas pouči, naj bomo sočutni s sočlovekom, ki ga je nekaj prizadelo, ga preizkuša bolezen ali kakšna druga težava. Vedeti moramo, da sta molitev in zaupanje v Boga dejanji vere in ljubezni do Boga. Sočutje in spoštovanje pa sta dejanji ljubezni do bližnjega. Jezus nam z zapovedjo naroča ljubezen do Boga in do bližnjega... Jezus s čudeži ni maral kazati in vzbujati pozornosti... Jezus se je ozrl v nebo, kar pomeni, da je molil k Očetu. Prosimo: Gospod Jezus, vodi naše misli in besede, da bodo razodevale tvojo usmiljeno ljubezen in prinašale srečo in pomoč drugim.

Being deaf is a very isolating experience at the best of times, but it was even worse for someone living in a culture based on oral tradition... What is interesting is that Jesus takes deaf man somewhere private. It feels like there is more to it than just needing to be away from eyes that might class these actions of Jesus (putting fingers in his ears, and spittle on his tongue) as weird. There is a layer of intimacy and personal encounter that feels just as essential as the weird stuff... Jesus heals us by his Word and sacraments. He opens our ears and loosens our tongue. Do we listen to his saving Word and then proclaim the Good News of Christ?
