CARITAS CANADA

In Honduras, as in much of the Global South, corporations often threaten and criminalize activists who speak up against their abuses. The Lenca Indigenous leader Víctor Vásquez was imprisoned for fighting the corporate takeover of his people's ancestral territory. Development and Peace's partner, the Honduran Centre for the Promotion of Community Development (CEHPRODEC), helped free him from jail. — Organizacija Development and Peace, zbira denarna sredstva v postmen času, pomaga revnim in zapostavljenim do človeka vrednega življenja ter se zavzema za tiste, ki so krivično preganjani. Pomagajmo s posebno nabirko SHARE LENT. Naj bo naša postna odpoved in dar dokaz dobrote in spoštovanja do ubogih in trpečih!

Nedelja, 27. marec: – V postnem času nas Cerkev vabi, naj se vrnemo k Bogu “z vsem srcem”. Naroča nam, naj se vsaj v velikonočnem času spovemo in prejmemo milost dopuščanja. – Prilika o usmiljenem očetu in njegovih dveh sinovih je vabilo, naj se trudimo prejeti Božje usmiljenje in to usmiljenje živeti, da ne bomo zapuščali Boga in da mu ne bomo očitali, da ne ravna prav z nami.

Prilika pove, Bog čaka na nas kljub našim oklevanjem, kljub našim grehom, nas sprejema, nas »pogovarja« in želi objeni z usmiljeno ljubeznijo. V svojem usmiljenju nam podari obleko čiste vesti, prstan prijateljstva in nas vabi k veselju.

Cerkev nas danes vabi: »Zberite se vsi, ki ljubite Gospoda. Vriskajte od veselja vsi, ki ste bili žalostni, Gospod vas bo potolažil.«

The parable of the “prodigal son” brings out this merciful aspect of God the Father. The Gospel passage is part of three parables on mercy and has a preamble that leads us to contemplate “all the publicans and sinners” who approach Jesus to listen to Him. These are reflected in the attitude of the younger son who comes to his senses and begins to think about his state and to ponder what he lost when he left his father's house... The mercy of the compassionate father, is in contrast with the severe attitude of the older son, who will not accept his brother as such and who, in the dialogue with the father, refers to him as: "this son of yours comes back after swallowing up your property – he and his women..." The contrast between the two brothers is quite evocative. The younger brother recognizes his misery and fault and returns home saying: "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son". The older brother takes an attitude of arrogance not only towards his brother but also towards his father! His scolding is in great contrast with the tenderness of the father who comes out of the house and goes to meet him to "entreat" him to go into the house
