Nedelja, 24. julij: – Jezus je šel molit, kar se je zgodilo pogosto. Navadno je Jezus s seboj vzela tudi učence. Učenci so želeli priti v odnos z Bogom, kot so to opažali pri Jezusu, ko je molil. Prosili so ga: nauči moliti. Jezus je učencem, ko jim je dal molitev, naročil, naj Boga imenujejo OČE! Boga, ki je vsemogočen, imenovati oče, to je bilo takrat nekaj nezaslišanega. Toda Božja beseda nam pove, da Bog ljubi svoje ljudstvo kot oče svojo družino.

Jezus nas vabi in spodbuja, naj vedno molimo in nja Boga kličemo »Oče«. Vzamimo si k srcu Jezusovo naročilo in molimo – vsak dan. Z molitvijo Boga slavimo, častimo, molimo in prosimo. Bog, naš Oče! Hvala ti, ker si me pri krstu sprejel za svojega otroka, sprejel si me v svojo družino.

Prayer was an integral part of Jesus' life and mission. He is the teacher of prayer and gives us a model of prayer. His relationship with the Father was at the core of his life and ministry. We pray this prayer of petition asking for God's kingdom to come and to give us what we need to facilitate that in our lives and in our relationships... His disciples often saw Jesus in prayer. They could have had no doubt that he was in deep communion with his father. He was praying in the certainty that the father heard him. No wonder they asked him to teach them how to pray. And how surprised that he used such simple language!.. What a beautiful request from one of the disciples to Jesus: 'Lord, teach us to pray'. Who taught you to pray? Have you ever taught anyone to pray - children, perhaps?... Heavenly Father, each day I depend upon you. I confidently ask for daily bread for my family and myself. And you generously keep on giving. Also I thank you for your loving forgiveness when I disappoint you. Give me a forgiving heart when others disappoint me.
