Nedelja, 21. avgust: – Jeyus je prišel na svet, da bi odrešil vse ljudi. Uči nas, kako naj živimo, da bomo hodili po pravi poti vere in bomo v moči vere mogli stopiti v večno življenje, ki ga je Jezus zaslužil s trpljenjem in smrtjo na križu.

Jezus pove, da so vrata, ki vodijo v večno življenje ozka. Vera na nek način zoži vrata, da postanejo kot križ, s katerim bomo odprli vrata in z njim vstopili v večno življenje. Pokončen, ozek tram križa nas usmerja k Bogu, prečen tran pa sta Jezusovi razprostrti roki, ki nas vabita in objemata. Jezus želi, da se z vero obračamo k cilju in da z dobroto in ljubeznijo pomagamo drugim, da bi hodili za Jezusom in bi hodili po pravi poti vere in bi nekoč skupaj uživali srečo in vesleje v Bogu.

The narrow door of salvation reminds us of the necessity of all to be committed to receiving this gift. The image does not say that God wishes to make it difficult to obtain salvation, but it emphasises the co-responsibility of men and women, the concreteness of the effort involved in this commitment to obtain salvation. According to Cyprian, going through the narrow door means a transformation: «Who does not wish to be transformed as soon as possible into the image of Christ?». The image of the narrow door is a symbol of the work of transformation to which the believer is committed through a slow and progressive effort on him/herself in order to refine him/herself and be moulded by the Gospel. More correctly, the one who does not commit him/herself to any kind of reciprocal relationship with God, with others and with the world, risks perdition.
