Nedelja, 28. avgust: – Današnje prvo berilo in evangelij nas vabita na pot ponižnosti in iskrenosti. Ponižnost, biti ponižen, ne pomeni sebe poniževati, ampak biti iskren do Boga, do sebe in do bližnjega. Kdor ni ponižen, gleda na drugega zviška in ga ponižuje. Kdor ni ponižen, ne priznava Božje dobrote, ljubezni in sumiljenja. Zgled ponižnosti je Marija, ki se je imenovala ponižna Gospodova dekla. Marija je bila obvarovana izvirnega greha in je mati Jezusa, Božjega Sina.

Occasionally Jesus was invited to eat with a Pharisee. But the invitation was different: it was a request to dine with the Pharisee and the other guests for the important Sabbath day dinner... The purpose of inviting Jesus was that they – the host plus the fellow Pharisees and law-experts he had invited - by closely watching Jesus, might discover a mistake that they can exploit for an accusation against him... To the mind and heart of Jesus what was happening was not merely a violation of table etiquette how they were occupying places but a manifestation of lack of humility love and respect... Jesus warns the host (and us) not to invite the four groups of people (friends, brothers, relatives, or rich neighbors) that he would enjoy the most, but (the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind) that people would enjoy the least... Jesus warns us against the danger of practicing piety or giving alms publicly, because we then receive our reward from our admirers. Rather, we should practice piety and give alms privately “and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.”
