

When news of his death reached his diocese (Gnidovec died in Ljubljana), the priests and people were deeply saddened by his death. They lost their spiritual leader, their teacher and benefactor. When the news of his death reached them, priests as well as ordinary people, even Muslims said, »A saint has died.«

Nedelja, 4. februar: – Božja beseda nas uči in naše izkušnje nam povedo, kako pomembno je upanje. Toda upanja ne moremo kupiti. Upanje je Božji dar. Dar pa si »zaslužimo« z življenjem in delom po Božji volji.

Jezus je s svojim naukom in z mogočnimi deli, čudeži utrjeval upanje tistim, ki so k njemu prihajali z vero in iskreno prošnjo za pomoč.

Jezus je tudi pokazal na potrebo in pomen molitve, ki odpira naše srce Božji milosti. Jezus je sprejel vsakega, ki je prišel k njemu. Z vero in zaupanjem se obračajmo na Jezusa in prosimo: Jezus, naš odrešenik, kljub slabosti in človeški šibkosti prihajam k tebi, ker potrebujem tvojo pomoč, tvojo ljubezen in usmiljenje. Ozdravljaj me na duši in telesu.

When Jesus and his disciples left the synagogue Jesus got word of Simon's mother-in-law being ill. He took her by the hand, healed her and lifted her up... At sundown on that day, they brought the sick and the possessed to Jesus. He cured many and then we are told 'he would not permit the demons to speak because they knew him'... The Gospels tell us that Jesus was in the habit of going off to a quiet place to pray. Jesus invites us to follow him, to imitate him.... In prayer, perhaps you might speak to Jesus about your shared experience of this lack of human acceptance and appreciation. Let him tell you how much he appreciates you as a companion and as one who shares his work. Notice and express how much you resist as well as relish what he says to you.
