

the world where Jesus walked — a world of imperial power, occupation and exploitation — the kind of place where proclaiming “good news to the poor” could get you into trouble. With your giving up and donating, your love and faith in actions brings new hope to many in the world.

Nedelja, 3. marec: – Deset zapovedi so izraz Božje modrosti. Sveto pismo Stare zaveze pove, da je živeti po Božji volji – modrost. Zato ne smemo Boga postavljati ob stran ali ga nadomestiti z drugimi stvarmi.

Jezus je s tem, ko je izgnal iz templja trgovce in menjalce denarja, naznačil, da ti ljudje niso imeli prave modrosti, modrosti, ki je v skladu z Božjo modrostjo. Svoje želje in načrte so postavili nad vse drugo in tako zaničevali Boga, njegovo modrost in božjo hišo.

Prosimo Jezusa, naj nas napolni in krepi s svojo Božjo modrostjo, da bomo živeli in delali kot je prav in po Božji volji. Tako se bomo v duhu vere pripravili na obhajanje velike noči.

When Jesus cleansed the Temple, he signed his death warrant. He stood up for the truth about God, about Temple and about religion and the poor. The business people of the temple were exploiting the poor with high prices. Lent gives us new insights into how Jesus lived his life. Because of his firm stand he was walking within the shadow of his death. The Gospel remembers us that his actions would lead him to death and to glory. The glory of God here is Jesus fully alive to the exploitation of the poor, and the mistreatment of the house of God. - God wants obedience and a life morally straight and just. The disciples admire Jesus for this action and think that for this attitude shows his deep desire to serve God, to pray, to worship him in the Temple.
