

je njegova veliko krepost, veliko znamenje, ki ga lahko tudi mi danes udejanjamo z našo življenjsko držo.«. Sv. Martinu so posvečene številne cerkve tudi v Sloveniji. Nastali so razni običaji. Mi poznamo martinovanje – 'sv. Martin naredi iz mošta vin'. Naj bo uživanje vina v duhu odgovornosti in ljubezni do bližnjega.

Jezus je rekel: »Resnično, povem vam: Ta uboga vdova je vrgla več kot vsi, ki so metali v zakladnico. Vsi so namreč vrgli od svojega preobilja, ta pa je dala od svojega uboštva vse, kar je imela, vse, kar potrebuje za življenje.«

Nedelja, 10. november: – Farizeji so se zavedali, da jih ljudje gledajo, zato se pazili, da so pokazali svoja dejanja, kot nekaj velikega in zelo pomembnega. Pred ljudmi so se razkazovali in skrbeli za svoj ugled in ne za češčenje Boga. Uboga vdova je častila Boga z molitvijo in velikodušno ljubeznijo. Ta njena ljubezen je bila v tem, da je darovala vse, kar je imela. Zaupala je v Boga in v njegovo veliko dobroto in usmiljenje. – V skrbi zase, ne smemo pozabiti ne na Boga ne na sočloveka. Prosimo Jezusa, naj nam pomaga s svojo besedo in milostjo, da bomo z njim in po njem iskreno častili Boga in da bo naša ljubezen do bližnjega v velikodušnih dejanjih in dobrih delih.

The poorest people in Jesus' teaching are represented by orphans and widows. The orphan, by definition, has no family and no means of support and is not wanted. The widow, if she had no children, she was alone and uncared for and perhaps reduced to poverty. The Gospel is pointing the finger at us, at our inner disposition to believe and trust God and be generous. The poor woman, in a daring act of trust in God's providence, put into the treasury everything she had—and it was next to nothing. She had two small coins. The Gospel today is saying it is only when we realise that God and the Way of Jesus is the only real source of security that we will find the happiness, peace and... It is not money, or property, or university degrees, or professional status, or health that really matter. What really matters is that people take care of each other, are loving and generous.
