Nedelja, 14. junij: – Ko je Jezus videl množico, ki je prihajala, da bi slišala besedo milosti, resnice in ljubezni. V duhu se je ozrl v prihodnost in učencem rekel: žetev je velika delavcev pa malo. Naročil

jim je, naj gredo in oznanjajo, da je prišlo Božje kraljestvo. Znamenja božjega kraljestva so dejanja debrote, ljubezni in usmiljenja. Jezus je čudežno nahranil množico, ozdravljaj bolnike, oznanjal in razodeval Božjo usmiljeno ljubezen. – Jezus, tvoja dobrot, ljubezen in usmiljenje nas vabi, osrečuje in je v pomoč na poti vere.

Jesus looking over the crowds of people. He is filled with compassion for them. They are “harassed and helpless” like sheep without a shepherd. Things have not changed that much. So many today are still harassed by various forces and helpless, drifting without any real direction in their lives... At first, the Apostles are told only to go to the ‘lost sheep’ of Israel and to avoid the Samaritans and Gentiles. God’s message is first for his own people and, in general, Jesus’ own work is almost entirely confined to the Jewish community. Later, of course, the mandate is extended to people everywhere.
